

Laura Malone, CAP®, CEPA is Vice President at American Endowment Foundation (AEF) America's Independent Leader of Donor Advised Funds. Through her work at AEF, Laura has consulted hundreds of trusted advisors, families and business owners about Donor Advised Funds and other charitable giving strategies. Laura holds her Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy designation from the American College and serves as a faculty member for the Exit Planning Institute's Certified Exit Planning Advisor (CEPA) Designation. She frequently speaks both locally and nationally to various financial, tax and estate planning organizations. Laura serves as Board Vice President of the International Association of Advisors in Philanthropy and serves on the Boards of Cleveland Social Venture Partners, the Financial Planning Association of Northeast Ohio and The Estate Planning Council of Cleveland.