Phoenix Rescue Mission

Legacy Giving Officer

Adele is the new Legacy Giving Officer for Phoenix Rescue Mission. Prior to moving to Arizona in 2013, she lived for 23 years in Anchorage Alaska, where she began her non-profit career. For 18 years, Adele has worked to help individuals achieve their charitable giving goals through annual giving appeals and special events; with a new focus on legacy giving. She has worked at United Way, the Humanities Forum, Catholic Charities, the Archdiocese of Anchorage, and the Arizona Community Foundation. Adele currently serves as President of the Board of the Greater Phoenix Chapter of Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP), was a mentor in the AFP Mentor Program, and served as Chair of the PGRT AZ Summer Conference for two years.

Adele earned her Certified Fundraising Executive in 2007, and has achieved the Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP) designation from The American College.

Adele enjoys the outdoors, whether a road trip to a new place, or hiking or biking in the surrounding mountains. She also loves to garden, read, and has learned a lot of new things by remodeling her home.
