

This session is a fun filled; inter-active group conversation of the ethical issues involved with charitable planning including how to avoid problematic conflicts of interest with your donors. Hypothetical case studies exposing ethical dilemmas will be analyzed and discussed such as if you should pay a donor's legal fees to draft a charitable gift in the donor's will, or what if your donor wants to leave you part of his or her estate.