

Lani Starkey

Professor at University of Hawaii

Lani, a tax attorney and certified public accountant, is a nationally recognized charitable tax planning expert who frequently speaks at national, regional and local conferences. He is also an adjunct professor at the Shidler College of Business where he teaches tax and estate planning to undergraduate finance students and graduate business students. - See more at: <http://www.uhfoundation.org/news/lani-starkey-promoted-associate-vice-president-principal-gifts-and-estate-and-gift-planning#sthash.iWV2lrIM.dpuf>

PGAC Presentations: Technical 9:20am: “Reinvention of Charitable Lead Trusts”
Fundamentals 11:15am: “The 8 Ways to Ask for a Gift – Expanding the art and Science of Solicitation”