

Biographical Information

Andrew Fussner currently serves as the national Vice President of Estate Settlement for the American Heart Association and oversees the administration of $75 to $100 million in bequest assets annually for the organization. He is based in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Before assuming his current position he served as the Vice President of Planned Giving for the AHA's Florida Affiliate and as the AHA's Director of Planned Giving for the west coast of Florida.

Prior to joining the AHA, Mr. Fussner was an attorney with the Tampa office of the national law firm of Foley & Lardner. He specialized in estate planning, probate/trust administration and tax law.

He holds his law degree from the University of Florida where he was a member of the Florida Law Review. He also obtained a B.S. in Accounting and a B.A. in Political Science from the University of Florida and has been named to UF's Hall of Fame.

In his spare time, he is an avid runner, hiker, non-fiction reader and can often be found at "The Swamp" rooting for his beloved Florida Gators.