Re: Estate of John Blutarsky, Deceased

Dear Mr. Marmalard:

As legal counsel for the executors of the estate of the late John Blutarsky, it is my pleasure to enclose a check payable to Faber College in the amount of $250,000. The enclosed check represents the full and complete distribution of Faber's one percent (1%) share of the residue of Mr. Blutarsky's estate. By way of background, Mr. Blutarsky died a resident of Boston, Massachusetts on March 1, 2016. His executors and trustees, all of whom wish to remain anonymous, have completed the death-related administration of Mr. Blutarsky's estate and trust, and are now in the process of distributing the remaining assets to various individuals and charities that Mr. Blutarsky named as beneficiaries entitled to shares of the estate and trust.

While he never actually graduated, Mr. Blutarsky was a proud alum of Faber. He also had a particular affinity for the Faber chapter of the Delta Tau Chi fraternity, where he spent most of his seven years in Hanover. While Mr. Blutarsky's relationship with Faber did not end well, he remained loyal and grateful to Faber and to his Delta Tau Chi brothers. As such, Mr. Blutarsky directed that all of the funds to which Faber is entitled under the terms of his will and trust are to be used exclusively for the benefit of the Faber chapter of the Delta Tau Chi fraternity. Mr. Blutarsky was very concerned about his legacy, and felt very strongly that the success he achieved following his "departure" from Faber was largely attributable to the lifelong friendships he formed with the men of Delta Tau Chi.

Those who knew Mr. Blutarsky know that he was not exactly a model student. They are also likely to be surprised at the wealth that Mr. Blutarsky accumulated given his less-than-mediocre academic performance. As his long-time attorney, friend and Delta Tau Chi brother of more than 30 years, you have my personal assurance that all of Mr. Blutarsky's wealth, including the funds represented by the enclosed check, was amassed via moral, ethical and completely legal business endeavors.

Pardon my digression, but if you could please sign the enclosed receipt and release, acknowledging the full and complete distribution of all amounts owed to Faber College by the John Blutarsky Estate and Trust, and return it to me in the enclosed envelope, my clients would greatly appreciate it.

Kindest Personal Regards,

Eric Stratton, Esq.
