

Dr. Linda Groomes
Consultant, Career/Life Coach, Author

Dr. Linda Groomes is the Founder & CEO of Achieving My Purpose (AMP), a nonprofit organization whose mission is to inform, inspire and empower young women, ages 18-30, to achieve their purpose through a) exposure to successful role models and resources, b) personal discovery and c) creation of an authentic life plan. has demonstrated her leadership skills in the public and private sectors during her tenure at Hallmark Cards, LGC Enterprises and the City of Scottsdale. Linda is also a diversity consultant with over 30 years of experience.

Linda serves on the board of the Arizona Humane Society and is a graduate of Scottsdale Leadership, Class 26. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and the Links, Incorporated. Linda holds a Ph. D from Grand Canyon University in Psychology, a Master of Business Administration Degree in Finance from Indiana University, and a Bachelor of Science Degree from Florida State University. She also holds a Certificate of Continuing Education from the Tuck School of Business.

Linda is the author of a book, “Lessons to Share with the Daughter I Never Had”.