

Darin Shebesta, CFP®, AIF®, is passionate about making a difference in the lives of others. A Certified Financial Planner™ professional and Accredited Investment Fiduciary®, he empowers clients to pursue their passion for life through integrated and comprehensive financial planning and investment management, taking a patient and empathetic approach specializing in working with women in transition as well as expanding and fulfilling their charitable wishes.

Darin joined Jackson/Roskelley Wealth Advisors, Inc. in 2008. He earned a B.S. in Finance with Honors from the W. P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University and a certificate in financial planning from Florida State University. He has been a CFP® Continuing Education ethics instructor for the Financial Planning Association since 2018 as well as the Retirement Resource Center since 2021. Darin is Past President of the Financial Planning Association of Greater Phoenix as well as the Current Chair of the Legacy Committee for the Scottsdale Rotary Club. In 2016, Darin was also named one of the Top 40 Under 40 Advisors by InvestmentNews.

A personal note (optional to include): Originally from Glendale, California, and raised in Albuquerque, New Mexico, Darin now lives in Scottsdale, Arizona, with his wife, Tiffany House, and supports three extraordinary stepdaughters and a multitude of animals.