

Brandon M. Stenseth, J.D.

Brandon M. Stenseth, J.D., serves as gift planning administrator in the Department of Development. He supports the Department of Development on gifts of real estate, charitable remainder trusts, charitable gift annuities and complex assets. Mr. Stenseth also leads the Gift Administration team within the Office of Gift Planning that handles administration of the Mayo Clinic trust and gift annuity programs. He began his career at Mayo Clinic in 2015 in the Legal Department, supporting the Department of Development on estate gifts and a variety of legal review matters.

Mr. Stenseth earned a Bachelor of Science in finance at the University of Wisconsin–La Crosse. He earned his J.D. from Marquette University Law School and is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin. Mr. Stenseth is originally from Eau Claire, Wisconsin.