

Andrew P. Tiebert, CPA, CFP®

Director, Gift Planning – Department of Development

Andrew (Andy) P. Tiebert, CPA, CFP®, is the director of gift planning in the Office of Gift Planning, Department of Development at Mayo Clinic and is based in the West Region in Scottsdale, Arizona.

In his role at Mayo Clinic, Mr. Tiebert supervises and coaches gift planning officers on strategy and execution to secure bequests, split-interest gift arrangements and gifts of complex assets. In addition, Mr. Tiebert supervises and advises gift planning colleagues responsible for marketing strategy and management of The Mayo Legacy recognition program, oversees gift planning education and training for frontline fundraisers, and provides philanthropic technical expertise to fundraisers and benefactors for the achievement of philanthropic goals to establish an enduring legacy at Mayo Clinic.

Prior to joining Mayo Clinic in March 2020, Mr. Tiebert served on the leadership team of Children's Minnesota Foundation as vice president, and previously he served as vice president of the Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago Foundation. Earlier in his career, Mr. Tiebert held leadership roles at the churchwide offices of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America Foundation, as well as at Lutheran Social Services of Illinois.

Mr. Tiebert's professional affiliations have included serving on the Legacy Advancement Steering Committee for The Woodmark Group, a not-for-profit organization whose members are premier children's hospitals in the United States and Canada. He was also a board member of the Chicago Council on Planned Giving, where he served as chair of its Leave A Legacy initiative in the Chicagoland region.

Mr. Tiebert earned his Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from Valparaiso University, and he is a certified public accountant and certified financial planner.