

Lindy Nash is the Supervising Attorney in the Bequest Management practice at Chisholm Chisholm & Kilpatrick. Her practice focuses on representing national charities and nonprofit organizations in fulfilling the wishes of their charitable donors while maximizing gifts and minimizing any administrative burden. She oversees the day-to-day operations of the practice and ensures that each client's matured bequests are handled efficiently while fulfilling the duty of good stewardship. Lindy first joined CCK in 2016 as a Litigation Associate. She litigated on behalf of disabled veterans and their families before the United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims and before the Department of Veterans Affairs. Lindy graduated from Connecticut College in 2011 earning a B.A. in both Psychology and Sociology. She then attended Suffolk University Law School and received her JD in 2015. Lindy is passionate about charity work and currently serves as the President of the Board of Trustees at the Providence Animal Rescue League ("PARL").
